

WILD COLONIAL BOYS

THE BUZZ

"The Wild Colonial Boys have perfected their craft and seem to be ready to reap the rewards. These guys should be on stage at every major Irish music festival in North America as they easily and happily performed a flawless set for the huge and appreciative crowd that turned out in their native Minneapolis / St. Paul. You will most definitely see more of this band as the cream always eventually rises to the top."

—Irish American Blogspot

(On Heads or Tails) "There is no need for a coin flip on this one. Any way it comes up, Heads or Tails is a winner."

--Irish American Focus

(On Irish In America) "Take the Young Dubliners, The Elders, Carbon Leaf, Great Big Sea and put them in a blender... you'd have a Wild Colonial Boys smoothie! Pick this one up... you won't be disappointed!"

---Paddyrock.com

(On Live... What's It To Ya?!) "The tracks on this CD do a magnificent job of playful energy... the lads are in fine shape as they stamp their particular style on each rendition"

---Irish American Focus

"Live... What's It To Ya?! is a recording capturing some high powered, smack you in the face with some great musicianship... you know... Wild Colonial Boys in their element! Pick this one up for sure and go see them live at a city near you... you won't be disappointed."

---Paddyrock.com

"This is AWESOME Irish music. Upbeat with a good dose of musicianship."

—Brian Oake, DJ, Cities 97.97.1FM Minneapolis

"I really like these guys. They are likable people and their music ROCKS."

—Chad Hartman, On-Air Host, KFAN 1130AM Minneapolis

"The crowd was really amped up before we even took the stage thanks to the Wild Colonial Boys. They kicked ass!"

—George Schwindt, Flogging Molly

"A really talented band that simply knows how to rock."

—Patrick Murphy, Gaelic Storm

"They were our favorite opening band for our last tour and we can't wait to play with them again."

—Keith Roberts, The Young Dubliners
